

The University of Rochester is one of America's leading private research universities. It consistently ranks among the top in federally-financed sciences, engineering, medical, humanities and social science research. Along with this rigor, Rochester operates on a personal scale, creating exceptional opportunities for experiential learning where students work closely with faculty and across subject matter in truly interdisciplinary ways. The unique Rochester Curriculum invites students to study what they love with focus and flexibility. Through individual and collaborate efforts, our students and faculty improve themselves, their communities, and our shared learning environment in the process.

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

CERTIFICATES & CITATIONS

The College currently offers certificate programs in Actuarial Studies, Biophysics, Biotechnology, Data Science, Literary Translation Studies, Mathematical Modeling in Political Science & Economics, Medphysics, Polish & Central European Studies, and Stage Management. Additionally, citation programs in Community –Engaged Scholarship and Achievement in College Leadership are programs that allow students to develop leadership skills through academic study coupled with specific practical community-based application.

COMBINED DEGREE PROGRAMS

For students interested in medicine (REMS), engineering (GEAR), education (GRADE), or epidemiology/public health (HEAL), the College offers selective programs for exceptional undergraduates that guarantee admission to professional or graduate school upon completion of the bachelor's degree. Students interested in music (DDE) may gain admission to both the College and the Eastman School of Music to pursue a BA/BS plus BM. Students interested in nursing (DDN) may gain admission to both the College and the School of Nursing to pursue a BA/BS plus BSN. For details, visit enrollment.rochester.edu/combined-degree-programs.

e5 PROGRAM

The e5 Program offers selected individuals a fifth year at Rochester, tuition free, to pursue internships, develop a business plan, or study/develop entrepreneurial skills to support their big ideas.

TAKE FIVE PROGRAM

Students who wish to pursue broader academic interest, in a research or experiential learning context can apply for this innovative Rochester program, which allows students to stay for a fifth year of study, tuition free.

STUDY ABROAD

More than 70 different Rochester-sponsored opportunities are available in over 35 countries.

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

Opportunities and financing are extensive at entrance, during the academic years, and in the summers. All undergraduates have opportunities to do research on their own, in teams, or as part of faculty-directed projects. Students may submit their work to be published in our Journal of Undergraduate Research and/or take part in our annual university-wide Undergraduate Research Exposition.

FREDERICK DOUGLAS INSTITUTE

Established in 1986 to promote the development of African and African-American studies. The institute offers an interdisciplinary major as well as internships, a bi-weekly video and film series and a distinguished speaker series.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY INSTITUTE

A multidisciplinary program focused on Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies and the changing cultural, economic, and psychological relations among people of all genders and sexualities. The institution sponsors research, seminars, conferences, mentorship seminars and an annual public lecture series.

APPLYING TO THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Rochester employs a holistic application review process to identify curious, capable, and engaged students. We seek to understand each application's academic ability, extracurricular engagement, ethical character, and their contributions to their communities for the greater good in order to determine their ability to improve both their campus and the world around them. We are a diverse campus community that values equality of opportunity and honest, respectful examinations of ideas. We seek young leaders of change who will celebrate and protect the values of our University and join us in making the world ever better.

Apply online through the Common Application or the Coalition for College Application. For details, visit enrollment.rochester.edu/how-to-apply.

Testing Optional Policy

Admission to the College of Arts, Science and Engineering is based on a holistic review process that includes a test-optional philosophy. This review process incorporates a variety of factors, including many kinds of academic and non-academic factors and realizes that standardized tests may not be an accurate reflection of a student's abilities. Applicants choosing to not submit a standardized test will not be disadvantaged nor will it negatively impact their application or merit scholarship review.

SAT/ACT Testing Deadlines

APPLICATION PLAN	LATEST TESTING (ACT)	LATEST TESTING (SAT)
ED I	October	October
ED II	October	November
RD	December	December

Veterans and Military Families

The University of Rochester has been a participant in the Yellow Ribbon Program since 2009. Veterans, spouses, and dependents with 100% entitlement for Post-9/11 G.I. Bill will have tuition and mandatory fees paid through a combination of VA and Yellow Ribbon funding. At this time, the University is not limiting their number of Yellow Ribbon participants. All admitted students who are eligible will automatically qualify.

FINANCIAL AID

We are committed to meeting the full-demonstrated need of all students who earn admission to the College. Financial need can be a contributing factor in our admissions decisions for most international applicants and a small percentage of our US applicants. The Financial Aid Office is available to help you and your family afford the investment of a Rochester education through a combination of different aid programs tailored to meet your calculated need.
